SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS:

We happily welcome the Rt Rev Charles Masters, our bishop and his wife Judy to our service today. It is so good to have them. They were with us one year ago as we began our journey as St James Fellowship, and we are so glad to welcome them back.

Please join us after the service for refreshments, and then for lunch in our downstairs hall. Help us celebrate this momentous occasion and thank God for his amazing goodness.

Please stay after the lunch as Rt. Rev Charles Masters discusses with us ANIC priorities ...

- 1.) Bold Witnesses
- 2.) Biblically Grounded
- 3.) Loving Children
- 4.) On Mission
- 5.) Planting and Growing Churches

COMMUNITY:

Our regular Bible Studies (on James on Wednesday night, and following the lectionary on Tuesday afternoon) began again last week for 2018. Please join us if you can, even if you can't commit to every week. They are a great way to share time with others, discuss faith, and learn from the bible.

Al has been under the weather, and will likely not be able to have his regular "Bible Reading with AL" time on Tuesday this week.

Women of St. James, you are invited to join in a time of fellowship and prayer on Friday mornings at 10 a.m., beginning Friday January 19th. Our focus will be the Lord's Prayer and praying the psalms, led by Dorothy Woodcock. You will be comfortable whatever your prayer experience, silent prayer is as valid as spoken.

OUTREACH:

Take a moment to check out the wonderful note we received from the CDC regarding our Sunday school's contributions to their cause!

The donation boxes for CDC and the Food Bank remain at the back of the church for anyone hoping to contribute nonperishable food.
