Aaron, Marie, Gabby and Henrik have moved! They would like to invite us all over to their home today for a simple lunch and to pray for their home. Please plan to come after church today. All are welcome.

We welcome the Rev Al Riemers who is now licensed as a priest in the Anglican Network in Canada! He resides in Belleville, but expects to be able to join us from time to time. Be sure to ask him about his involvement in the beginnings of 100 Huntley St!

We have a box at the back of the church for contributions to the Food Bank and to the CDC. Please try to remember this important cause when you come to church on Sunday. A particular need at the moment is items, such as baby food to help with younger children and babies.

Consider coming to one of our weekly bible study times. They have very different flavours. On Tuesday afternoon we study the upcoming weekly readings, and are also reading through the major stories of the bible. Wednesday night we are using a new video series about the Book of James. You are welcome to join us anytime at any of them, and if you only can come once in a while that's ok too!

This is Remembrance Sunday. Please take a look at the table at the back of the church where some of us have displayed pictures of loved ones who have been a part of defending freedom and peace in the world.

Pentecost 22

The Collect prayer for today is:

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen

Readings for today:

Micah 3:5-12, Psalm 43, 1 Thessalonians 2:9-20,
Matthew 23:1-12

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive communion here. If you do not wish to receive, feel welcome to come forward for prayer or a blessing.

Be sure to call Rev Steve at 613-438-3874 if you want to share a great idea for our new church. Steve loves to have a hot drink and talk about faith. If something said this morning has encouraged you, or helped in your journey, or left you with more questions, give Steve a call!

Ministry Priorities:
